

PACeS, What a life-saver for me this year. My eldest daughter was ready for grade 3 and I was searching for a homeschool program to enrol her in. The program she was with for Grade 1 and 2 was no longer available and I was desperate to find something that would support our family values and belief system. After checking into several other programs, I talked to Janet Hall with P.A.C.eS. At first I was a little skeptical as to how well P.A.C.eS would meet our needs, but as the year progressed, I realized it was the best thing that could have happened to us! It gave us the flexibility we needed, not just with our schedule, but also with the subject matter. We went away for a month, took our computer along and were able to keep up with the online classes whenever we had access to internet. But the greatest blessing comes with knowing that my facilitator and my children's teacher is a committed Seventh-day Adventist Christian who will support my values, beliefs and practices. And that is huge to me! That is why I'm homeschooling – and P.A.C.eS has given us the ability to do that while operating our busy family business. It provides the material, with a plan to cover it all in the year; it provides a forum for my children to interact with their teacher and fellow students each week; it gives me confidence knowing that a certified teacher is guiding the learning; it allows me peace of mind because my children are learning lessons for life here and for eternity.
